to the mysore Service Regulations.

2. The omissions, additions and alterations proposed in the 3rd Edition of the mysore Service Regulations are all based upon the Changes introduced into the 4th Edition of the British Civil Service Regulations and the Corrections since issued to the latter.

Art 1(a) is the same as art 1(a) of the B.S.R except that the words "~~by officers holding~~" "by service in the Civil Depts" the words "by officers holding substantive appointments under the Govt of H H the maharaja of mysore" have been substituted.

(1) X

Secretariat alteration ordered by the Committee (vide Board's minute 25/5/05)

Art 1(b). There may be some orders applicable to particular officers or appointments not included in the Regulations. So the Opening sentence of this corresponding art of the B.S.R may be retained and as such cases are not likely to be many the word "some" may be substituted for "many" the first word of the sentence. The last part of the corresponding para of the B.S.R prescribes the procedure to be followed if cases of omission of orders affecting these matters are discovered in the Regulations but this provision has been omitted in the articles proposed by the Compt^r:-

ii Articles 3, 4 & 5 Correspond to art 4 of the B&R

iii, iv, v and art 79 are the same as the alterations found in the B&R 4th Edition.

Art-81. The words "taken separately and not combine with other leave under art-165A" are copied for the B&R. This Correction has already issued as Slip no 55 of 17.12.02. The words "or taken preparatory to retirement" are added as such leave is admissible under the M&S R and as it is necessary to make arrangements in connexion with such privilege leave Vacancies. It seems necessary to insert "not" before "taken preparatory to retirement".

Art 222. The Corresponding Correction was introduced in the B&R by the 24th list of Corrections

Art-101 & 102. The articles proposed as substitutes for these were introduced into the B&R by the 52nd list. The rule regarding the fixing of the pay of an officer transferred to a new appointment from an appointment in which he is drawing pay in excess of the maximum is altered by the new art 102 A.

Art-516. Please see 63rd list of Corrections to the B&R

Art-561. do

None of the proposals except art 102 A involve any material alteration of the existing provisions

In GO no 3428-9 of 13.6.04 it was ordered that the opinion of Govt must be obtained before finally printing the third Edition. The Compt^r now states that this would cause inconvenience

SIR,

With reference to Government Pro: No.F3428-9 dated 13th In stant stating that the approval of Government must be obtained before finally printing the Mysore Service Regulations, I have honor to represent that the Superintendent of Government Print in Mysore has already, in the case of the Mysore Civil Account Code, brought to notice that the whole matter cannot be kept s ing for any length of time without inconvenience to other work (vide this office No.7264-Spl:13 of the 18th Instant) and he m possibly find the inconvenience much greater if he has to keep matter standing in the case of the Service Regulations.

2. The edition of the Service Regulations now ordered will merely a reprint ofthe second edition, embodying such of the a denda and Corrigenda as have been already issued with the appr of Government. The few alterations, additions & omissions whic consider necessary are submitted herewith and if these are app of, the whole of the 3rd Edition of the Regulations will have approved of by Government, and the Regulations can be printed once without causing the Press any inconvenience in having, in

Proposed alterations to be made in the Mysore Service Re gulations while printing the 3rd Edition.

1. Some of the Articles are already omitted and it is prop to omit a few others for the reasons given below against the articles concerned. Again many of the Articles are given sub numbers. As it is inconvenient to retain the old Numbers, i is proposed to re Number the Article and to introduce, for f lity of reference, two Tables showing where the rules of the 3rd Edition are to be found in the Second Edition & Vice ver

2. The following are the additions, Omissions and alterati which it is proposed to introduce into the 3rd Edition.

(i) Articles 1 & 2. The following will be substituted these two articles as being the better suited for defining t extent of the application of the Regulations.

1 (a) These Regulations are intended to define the cond tions under which salaries, leave and pension and other allo are earned (by officers holding substantive appointments unde the Government of H.H.the Maharaja of Mysore) and in want wh manner they are calculated. They do not deal otherwise than directly and incidentally with, matters relating to recruitm promotion, official duties, descipline or the like.

(b) The Regulations have been framed so as to embody existing orders affecting the Acting Allowances, the leave a leave allowances, the pensions, and the travelling allowance such officers.

(ii) For Articles 3, 4 & 5 the following will be substit as being simpler & concise :-

2. The Government reserve to themself the right of changir the rules in these Regulations regarding the pay and Acting lowances, and leave and pension, from time to time at their cretion and of interpreting their meaning in case of dispute

An Officer's claim to pay and allowances is regulated by rules in force at the time in respect of which pay and allow are earned; to leave, by the rules in force at the time the

the leave is applied for and granted; to pension, by the rules in force at the time when the officer resigns or is discharged from the service of Government.

(iii) Article 10 will be removed and entered as 15 as the d finition of "Class & Grade"; and Article 23 will be omitted as being unnecessary.

(iv) Article 11 For the words "according to the circle of Audit where" in lines two and three, it is proposed to substit "in whose Circle of Audit".

(v) Articles 34, 37, & 39 will be omitted as being unneces sary.

Article 79. The word "however" in the first line of th Article will be omitted as unnecessary.

Article 81. After "Privilege leave" in line 2 of this Article it is proposed to insert "taken separately and not com bined with other leave under Article 165A or taken preparatory to retirement".

Article 16. After the word "lasting" in line 4 it is proposed to insert "in either case"

The following will be substituted for Article 101 & 10 as being more explicit-

101 an Officer who is appointed substantively to an appoi ment on progressive pay begins with the minimum pay of the appointment

(a) if prior to his appointment he holds no substantive appointment under Government, or (b) if he is transferred theret from an appointment in which he is ordinary drawing pay below the minimum pay of the new appointment, and if he has not alre officiated in the latter.

102. If the officer is transferred to the new appointment from an appointment in which he was drawing less pay than the minimum of the new appointment, but has officiated already the in, his pay is fixed as follows :-

(a) If the salary which he drew when last officiating is equal to one of the stages of the pay of the appointment, his pay shall be fixed at that stage, and he shall count in that stage the time during which he has been drawing the said salar

(b) If the salary which he drew when last officiating is intermediate between two stages, his pay shall be fixed at th amount for half the period during which an increment is earned and on the first day of the month thereafter succeeding, he shall be eligible for the next higher stage of the progressive pay.

Example- An officer is on 20th June substantively appoint to an appointment of which the pay is Rs.200-10-250 and in wh he is already officiating.

(a) If his salary at the time of his appointment and from 1st March last has been Rs.220, he continues to draw Rs.220, a on 1st March next rises to Rs.230.

(b) If his salary at the time of appointment is Rs.225, he will draw Rs.225 till 1st January and then rise to Rs.230.

Note- Any period for which an officer has held the progre sive appointment as sub pro tem may be counted as officiating service for the purpose of this article.

102A. If the officer is transferred to the new appointment from an appointment in which he was drawing pay in ~~lecess~~ excess of minimum, then whether he has officiated in the appointment or not, his pay is fixed as follows :-

(a) If his pay immediately prior to the transfer is equa to any stage of the new appointment, he shall draw the pay of that stage; and after the expiry of the period during which an an increment is earned he shall draw the pay of the next highe stage and so on.

(b) If his pay immediately prior to the transfer is inter-mediate between any two stages of the new appointment, he shal draw the pay of the next lower stage, plus a personal allowanc equal to the difference between the pay of that stage and his former pay; and after the expiry of the period in which an in-crement is earned he shall draw the pay of the next higher sta (losing the personal allowance) and so on.

102B (a) When however the conditions of an officers servic are such that he is liable to be transferred in the same Depar ment between appointments of which the pay and increments are are identical, his service will, in the case of such a transf count for increments as if he had not been transferred.

(b) On transfer of an officer, as a penalty, from a high to a lower appointment on progressive pay, Government may all him to draw any salary, not exceeding the maximum of such app ment, as they may think proper.

Article 222. The words "period of such leave" will be subst tuted for the words "period of ~~allowance~~ absence" in line 3 of Clause (a) of this Article.

Article 516. The following will be inserted as a note und this Article :-

Note- See note under Article 561 (iii) (1)

Article 561. The following will be inserted as a note und (iii) (1) of this Article.

Note - When an officer proceeds by rail to a station oth than his Head Quarters and on the same day & in continuation the railway journey travels on duty by road, he is entitled t travelling allowance for the journey by road calculated in ac cordance with this Clause for the whole distance travelled taking the railway station as the starting point.

Articles as they stand now.	Article as they will be after the proposed alterations.
1. No standing order not contained in these Regulations should be quoted or trusted in deciding or submitting for orders any question affecting the Pay and Allowances, Leave, Pension, or Travelling allowances of Officers engaged in the administration of the State.	1.(a) These Regulations are intended to define the conditions under which salaries, leave and pension and other allowances, are earned by officers holding ~~subordinative~~ Substantive appointments under the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore and in what manner they are calculated. They do not deal otherwise than indirectly and incidentally with matters relating to recruitment, promotion, official duties, descipline or the like.
2. The rules in these Regulations apply to all Officers holding substantive appointments under the Government of Mysore.	(b) Some orders applying to particular appointments or to particular ~~Individuals~~ individuals are not included in them; but with this exception the Regulations have been framed so as to embody all orders Still in force affecting the acting allowances, the leave and leave allowances, the pensions, and the travelling allowances of Officers. The omission from the Regulations of any order on those matters which is believed to be still in force should be brought to the notice of the

3. The Government reserves to it - self the right of changing the Pay and Acting allowance Rules, from time to time, at its discretion, and of interpreting their meaning. An officer's claim to Pay and allow-ances is regulated by the rules that may, from time to time, be in force.

4. (a) The Government reserves to itself the right of modifying the Leave Rules in these Regulations as may, from time to time, seem to it expedient, and of interpreting them in case of dispute.

(b) An officer's claim to leave is regulated by the rules in force at the time that the leave is applied for and granted.

5. (a) The Government also reserves to itself the right of changing the Pension Rules, from time to time, at its discretion, and of interpret-ing their meaning. An officer's claim to pension is governed by the rules in force at the time when he resignes or is discharged from the service of Government: he is not entitled to concessions with-drawn before, or made after, his resignation or discharge.

(b) In accordance with the prin-ciple laid down in clause(a), the

the Government through the pro-per channel. Until so confirmed it should be considered as not in force.

2. The Government reserve to thor-selves the right of changing the rules in these Regulations regard-ing the pay and Acting allow-ances, and leave and pension, from time to time, at their dis-cretion and of interpreting their meaning in case of dispute.

An ofricer's claim to pay and allowance is regulated by the rules in force at the time in respect of which pay and allow-ance are earned; to leave, by th rules in force at the time the leave is applied for and granted to pension, by the rules in forc at the time when the officer re-signs or is discharged from the service of Government.

the claims of persons who have already left the service of Government must be determined by the rules which were in force at the time they left it. These Regulations do not necessarily apply to them.

79. The Government may, however, if it think fit, assign to the officer a charge allowance of less than the amount thus admissible, and, on the other hand, if it think this amount too small, may grant him, for special recorded reasons, the full acting allowance. The charge allowance of an officer under this article must never exceed what he would draw as acting allowance if appointed to officiate in the appointment.

79. The Government may, if it think fit &c.

(81.) As a general rule, the duties of an officer absent on privilege leave taken separately and not combined with other leave under Art. 165 A. should be discharged by another officer at the same station or District. Only in exceptional cases where there is absolutely no officer available on the spot, can the transfer of an officer from another station or District to act in consequence of the absence of an officer on privilege leave be allowed.

81. As a general rule, the duties of an officer absent on privilege taken separately and not either combined with other leave under Article 165 A or granted preparatory to retirement should be discharged by another officer at the same station or District. Only in exceptional cases where there is absolutely no officer available on the spot, can the transfer of an officer from another station or District to act in consequence of the absence of an officer on privilege leave be allowed.

16. Continuous Service and Continuous Active Service mean the Ser

Service and Active Service of an officer since his last return from Furlough or Extraordinary Leave lasting more than three months; or, if he have not had such leave, since the beginning of his Active Service. No leave may be included in Continuous Service, except Privilege Leave and Examination Leave

Note.-(See Chapter XI, Article 164.)

101. Ordinarily an officer appointed substantively to progressive appointment begins with the minimu pay. But if the appointment is one in which he has already officiated his pay is fixed as follows.

(a) If the salary which he drew when last officiating is equal to one of the stages of the pay of the appointment, his pay shall be fixed at that stage, and he shall count in that stage the time during which he has been drawing the said salary.

(b) If the salary which he drew when last officiating is intermediate between two stages, his pay shall be fixed at that amount for half the period during which an increment is earned, and on the first day of the month thereafter succeeding he shall be eligible for the next higher stage of the progressive pay.

101. An officer who is appointed substantively to an appointment on progressive pay begins with the minimum pay of the appointment;-

(a) if prior to his appointment he holds no substantive appointment under Government, or

(b) if he is transferred thereto from an appointment in which he is drawing pay below the minimum pay of the new appointment, and if he has not already officiated in the latter.

Example.- An officer is on 20th June substantively appointed to an appointment of which the pay is Rs.200-10-250, and in which he is already officiating-

(a) If his salary at the time of his appointment and from 1st March last has been Rs.220, he continues to draw Rs.220 and on 1st March next rises to Rs.230.

(b) If his salary at time of appointment is Rs.225, he will draw Rs.225 till 1st January, and then will get Rs.230.

Note.- Any period for which an officer has held the progressive appointment as substantive pro tempore may be counted as officiating service for the purposes of this article, the salary during the period of Substantive pro tempore tenure being taken at what it would have been if the officer had been officiating in the appointment.

102. (a) An officer transferred substantively to a progressive appointment from an appointment in which he is drawing pay in excess of the minimum pay of the new appointment will, if the transfer is made by an authority to which both appointments are subordinate, or if the transfer is declared to have been made for special reasons and in the interests of the public service, draw the nearest stage, or, if two stages

102. If the officer is transferred to the new appointment from an appointment in which he was drawing less pay than the minimum pay of the new appointment, but has officiated already therein, his pay is fixed as follows:-

(a) If the salary which he drew when last officiating is equal to one of the stages of the pay of the appointment, his pay shall be fixed at that stage, and he stages are equally near, then the next higher stage of pay in the new appointment, but will count time for increments as if he had commen-ced on the minimum pay.

When, however, the conditions of an officer's service are such that he is liable to be transferred in the same Department between appointments of which the pay and increments are identical, his service will, in the case of such a transfer, count for increments as if he had not been transferred.

(b) On transfer of an officer, as a penalty from a higher to a lower appointment on a progressive pay, the Government may allow him to draw any salary, not exceeding the maximum of such appointment, as it thinks proper.

he shall count in that stage the time during which he has been drawing the said salary.

(b) If the salary which he drew when last officiating is intermediate between two stages, his pay shall be fixed at that amount for half the period during which an increment is earned and on the first day of the month thereafter succeeding, he shall be eligible for the next higher stage of the progressive pay.

Example- An officer is on the 20th June substantively appointed to an appointment of which the pay is Rs.200-10-250 and in which he is already officiating.

(a) If his salary at the time of his appointment and from 1st March last has been Rs.220, he continues to draw Rs.220, and on 1st March next rises to Rs.230.

(b) If his salary at the time of appointment is Rs.225, he will draw Rs.225 till 1st January and then rise to Rs.230.

Note- Any period for which an officer has held the progresssive appointment as sub pro tem may be counted as officiating service for the purpose of this article.

102 A. If the officer is transferred to the new appointment from an appointment in which he was drawing pay in excess of the

the minimum, then whether he has officiated in the appointment or not, his pay is fixed as follows:-

(a) If his pay immediately prior to the transfer is equal to any stage of the new appointment, he shall draw the pay of that stage; and after the expiry of the period during which an increment is earn-ed he shall draw the pay of the next higher stage and so on.

(b) If his pay immediately prior to the transfer is intermediate between any two stages of the new appointment, he shall draw the pay of the next lower stage, plus a personal allowance equal to the difference between the pay of that stage and his former pay; and after the expiry of the period in which an increment is earned he shall draw the pay of the next higher stage (losing the perso-nal allowance) and so on.

102 B. (a) When however the conditions of an officer's service are such that he is liable to be transferred in the same Department between appointments of which the pay and increments are identical, his service will, in the case of such a transfer, count for increments as if he had not been transferred.

(b) On transfer of an officer, as a penalty, from a higher to a lower appointment on progressive pay pay, Government may allow him to draw any salary, not exceeding t maximum of such appointment, as they may think proper.

Proposed alterations to be made in the Mysore Service Regulations.

1. Some of the Articles are already omitted and it is proposed to omit a few others for the reasons given below against the articles concerned. Again many of the articles are given sub numbers. As it is inconvenient to retain the old numbers, it is proposed to re-number the Articles and to introduce, for facility of reference, two Tables showing where the rules of the 3rd Edition are to be found in the second Edition & Vice versa.

2. The following are the additions, omissions and alterations which it is proposed to introduce into the 3rd Edition.

(I) Articles 1 and 2. The following will be substituted for these two articles, as being the better suited for defining the extent of the application of the Regulations.

1 (a) These Regulations are intended to define the conditions under which salaries, leave and pension and other allowances are earned(by officers holding substantive appointments under the Government of H.H.the Maharaja of Mysore), and in what manner they are calculated. They do not deal otherwise than indirectly and incidentally with matters relating to recruitment, promotion, official duties, descipline or the like.

(b) The Regulations have been framed so as to embody all the existing orders affecting the Acting allowances, the leave and the leave allowances, the pensions, and the travelling allowances of such officers.

(II) For Articles 3,4 and 5 the following will be substi-substituted as being simpler and concise:-

2. The Government reserve to themselves the right of changing the rules in these Regulations regarding the pay and Acting allowances, and leave and pension, from time to time, at their discretion and of interpreting their meaning in case of dispute.

An Officers' claim to pay and allowances is regulated by the rules in force at the time in respect of which pay and allowance are earned; to leave, by the rules in force at the time the leave is applied for and granted; to pension, by the rules in force at the time when the officer resigns or is discharged from the service of Government.

(III) Article 10 with note will be removed and entered as 15, as the definition of "Class and Grade"; and article 23 will be omitted as being unnecessary.

(IV) Article II. For the words "according to the circle of Audit where" in lines two and three, it is proposed to substitute "in whose Circle of Audit".

(V) Articles 34,37, and 39 will be omitted, as being unnecessary.

Article 79. The word "however" in the first line of this Article will be omitted as unnecessary.

Article 81. After "Privilege leave" in line 2 of this Article it is proposed to insert "taken separately and not either combined with other leave under Article 165-A or granted preparatory to retirement."

Article 16. After the word "lasting" in line 4 it is proposed to insert "in either case"

The following will be substituted for articles 101 and 102 as being more explicit-

101. An Officer who is appointed substantively to an appointment on progressive pay begins with the minimum pay of the appointment,-

(a) if prior to his appointment he holds no substantive appointment under Government, or (b) if he is transferred thereto from an appointment in which he is drawing pay below the minimum pay of the new appointment, and if he has not already officiated in the latter.

102. If the officer is transferred to the new appointment from an appointment in which he was drawing less pay than the minimum of the new appointment, but has officiated already therein, his pay is fixed as follows:-

(a) If the salary which he drew when last officiating is equal to one of the stages of the pay of the appointment, his pay shall be fixed at that stage, and he shall count in that stage the time during which he has been drawing the said salary

(b) If the salary which he drew when last officiating is intermediate between two stages, his pay shall be fixed at that amount for half the period during which an increment is earned and on the first day of the month thereafter succeeding, he shall be eligible for the next higher stage of the progressive pay.

Example- An officer is on the 20th June substantively appointed to an appointment of which the pay is Rs.200-10-250 and in which he is already officiating.

(a) If his salary at the time of his appointment and from 1st March last has been Rs.220, he continues to draw Rs.220, and on 1st March next rises to Rs.230.

(b) If his salary at the time of appointment is Rs.225, he will draw Rs.225 till 1st January and then rise to Rs.230.

Note- Any period for which an officer has held the progressive appointment as sub-pro-tem may be counted as officiating service for the purpose of this article.

102. A. If the officer is transferred to the new appointment from an appointment in which he was drawing pay in excess of the minimum, then whether he has officiated in the appointment or not , his pay is fixed as follows:-

(a) If his pay immediately prior to the transfer is equal to any stage of the new appointment, he shall draw the pay of that stage ; and after the expiry of the period during which an an increment is earned he shall draw the pay of the next higher stage and so on.

(b) If his pay immediately prior to the transfer is intermediate between any two stages of the new appointment, he shall draw the pay of the next lower stage, plus a personal allowance equal to the difference between the pay of that stage and his

his former pay; and after the expiry of the period in which an increment is earned he shall draw the pay of the next higher stage (losing the personal allowance) and so on.

102.B. (a) When however the conditions of an officer's service are such that he is liable to be transferred in the same Department between appointments of which the pay and increments are identical, his service will, in the case of such a transfer count for increments as if he had not been transferred.

(b) On transfer of an officer, as a penalty, from a higher to a lower appointment on progressive pay, Government may allow him to draw any salary, not exceeding the maximum of such appoint-ment, as they may think proper.

Article 222. The words " period of such leave " will be substituted for the words "period of absence" in line 3 of clause (a) of this article.

Article 516. The following will be inserted as a note under this article:-

Note- See note under Article 561 (III) (1).

Article 561. The following will be inserted as a note under (III) (1) of this Article.

Note- When an officer proceeds by rail to a station other than his Head-Quarters and on the same day and in continuation of the railway journey travels on duty by road, he is entitled to travelling allowance for the journey by road calculated in in accordance with this clause for the whole distance travelled taking the railway station as the starting point.
